The Pub's Story

In the late 1970's the site was a service station. Flooded tanks leaked and the site was abandoned with soil turned over regularly.

In the 1980's the Mighty Putt and Water Wonderland, featured Australia's longest waterslide, 18 holes of mini golf and fun for the whole family. It was open daily and was situated near the Golden Beach turn-off in downtown Caloundra.

The Dan Murphy's now sits on that site.

In the early 1990's this was a Suncoast Fitness Gym and by 1999 The Golden Beach Tavern opened its doors for the first time.

In 2008 Redcliffe businessman Peter O'Keefe, the man who founded the Matilda service stations in Queensland, made his first purchase into the hotel industry, paying $7.25 million dollars for the site at auction in May 2008.

The hotel underwent a $6 million dollar renovation in 2012 and the ALH Group purchased the hotel in 2015.

After we acquired the hotel in 2015, the hotel underwent renovations once again with the addition of customer favourites, the beer garden, back deck and kids play area. The sports bar also had its own changes, with the removal of the onsite bottle shop which is now the pool table area. The Dan Murphy's was also built in 2015.

NRL legend Alfie Langer was a regular of the hotel and held his annual charity luncheon after parties here at the venue.
